

Paris-Bourbon County Public Library
Contact: Mark Adler, Library Director
701 High Street, Paris, KY 40361
Phone (direct) 859-987-4419 x103
madler@bourbonlibrary.org

Monday, December 21, 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Interested in serving as a Trustee of the Paris-Bourbon County Public Library Board?

The Paris-Bourbon County Library's Board of Trustees will have two upcoming vacancies for which they are accepting applications. The Library is seeking to identify dedicated individuals who have a passion for libraries and the ability to effectively advocate for them. The Board of Trustees is responsible for establishing policy, approving the budget, and ensuring that adequate funds are available to finance the budget. The Board oversees the library's finances and the library director and is responsible for understanding and supporting the library's mission, programs and services delivered to the community. This is a volunteer position and applicants must be a resident of Bourbon County. The position will begin July 1, 2021.

Interested individuals should notify Library Director Mark Adler to make arrangements to attend an informational session to be held via Zoom on Monday, January 25, 2021 at 6:00pm. Applications are available at the library or online at www.bourbonlibrary.org. Applications must be received by 5:30 pm, Monday, February 8, 2021 and can be dropped off at the library (Attention: Mark Adler, Library Director), emailed to madler@bourbonlibrary.org, or mailed to:

Paris-Bourbon County Public Library
Mark Adler, Director
701 High Street
Paris, KY 40361

###